About Us

SKG IT Ltd was set up in 2002 to provide services to its sister company's. After two years of development and growth SKG has emerged with a wealth of experience in delivering products and partnerships.

It is with those partners that SKG is launching a range of products and services based on our in house experience that will develop into a total solution and resource for everyone needing to maximise the technical and financial success of their company.

How we operate

SKG is based in Southampton, Hampshire, we work out of a fully equipped shared facility with our closest partner. The office is open Mon –Fri 9 – 5. Outside of office hours we have a system to provide continued service and support throughout the region, and emergency coverage nationwide.

The main driving force behind SKG is a combined team of David Channon and Lee Bunker.

As managing director David is responsible for developing new products and ensuring that quality of service is maintained across the SKG range of products and services. David's technical experience, years of involvement with the Internet and ability to recognise new opportunities for company's helps make SKG a truly exciting company.

Lee operates in the capacity of general manager, ensuring that projects are defined, guidelines are in place and deadlines are met. Lee's years of experience in similar roles is a true asset to SKG and gives us a professional edge that our clients appreciate and rely on

The third principle force behind SKG is Ali Tehrani. As the Finance Director he brings a wealth of experience to SKG, allowing us to be confident in maintaining our infrastructure and our continued growth and development for the future.
